*All students coming to New Zealand are required to have insurance. You can purchase an insurance policy through our school to ensure you have the appropriate coverage. Alternatively, you're welcome to arrange your own insurance, but please note that we must pre-approve your policy in advance.
Please note that the prices listed in the table are approximate and may vary.

Homestay: At Taupo-nui-a-Tia College, we carefully arrange a suitable homestay family for every international student.
All our homestay families are reference-checked and police-vetted to ensure a safe and welcoming environment. Each student is provided with their own room and daily meals.We ask our host families to treat students as they would their own child—with love, warmth, and genuine care.

 Homestay gluten free or vegan fees: For a gluten free or vegan diet we charge $40 per week extra.

* Contingency fees: Those fees will solely be used for school related student activities, extra course fees and musical instrument rental fees.
We will ask natural parental permission for all overnight trips and high risk activities.

 Admin extension fees (inclusive Visa admin support): a student can extend their stay. The extra admin fees will be $600. This includes admin support to apply for a new visa. Visa costs itself are $850.

Prices include:
Tuition fees
Use of text books

NCEA fees ($383) only applicable if students want to do NCEA.
Transport from Auckland airport to Taupō

Airport transfer: Taupō has a domestic airport with direct flights (2 per day) from Auckland International airport. Students who arrive in Auckland airport could choose to take a flight to Taupō airport through the domestic terminal. They will be welcomed at Taupō airport by their host family and the homestay coordinator. No fees apply.
In case you arrive with a group of 4 or more students we offer a shuttle service for $150 pp one way or $300 return. In case you are arriving with 2 students this will be double the price. In both cases, we are happy to help you with the bookings.

All fees are in NZ dollars.
